OLD BUSINESS

1. SPCC Update

Duane reported that the HULA group is going forward with their plans to take over the Child Care Center in Walsenburg. They are getting their 501 c 3 designation, they are setting up a board to govern and looking at funding sources to purchase the building and equipment. The HULA group will present an update to the board at the April Board Meeting and feel they are on schedule to take the program over on or before June 30th.

2. General Discussion Relocating Services to the Alta Vista Property No new updates

NEW BUSINESS

1. Executive Session

It was M/S/P by Nielson and De Bono to go into Executive Session to discuss personnel issues with Attorney Sisto Mazza.

2. Review of Accounting Internal Control Policies Teri Hansford reviewed policies that the accounting department uses for internal controls. Following discussion it was M/S/P by Spencer and De Bono to adopt the updated internal control policies.

3. Request to lease the home on Garcia St

Duane reported that he has been approached about the possibility of leasing the house that we own on Garcia street. Following discussion it was M/S/P De Bono and Spencer to authorize the lease for 1 year if the agency is not going to use the property in the next year. The rental amount at a minimum should be $1,200 per month.

Program Reports

1. Directors

Duane gave an update on upcoming legislation to include bills that target wages for direct service staff. The bill is originating from the JBC and the intent to have line item funding that is directed at wages for direct service personnel. At the present time the amount is targeted at increase of 6.5%. Questions on the bill include, will this be across all 11 waivers or just those that serve the IDD population. Will this include taxes and other benefits, what accountability factors will be put in place, will this cover Case Management and mid-level support staff. SCDDS needs to file the Annual Designation Application for the CCB and update the long range plan. Duane indicated that public forums will be held on April 17 in Trinidad and the 18 for Walsenburg both meeting will be at 4 pm.

Duane also reported that LACRC is advertising for the Adult Day program Director position.
